

Best Gussied-Up Cowboy Grub
Cartwright's

You don't have to spit-shine your boots to saddle up to Cartwright's. Heck, you don't have to own boots to dine in the rustic, chic ranch house, which serves mesquite-grilled steaks and seafood with a dose of history. As juicy as the steaks are, the stars are the flame-licked game meats: elk, buffalo and quail. Chiles, corn and beans provide hearty accents for a taste of the Wild West.

- Phoenix Magazine November 2011